January 20, 2019

PLAINFIELD, NJ - The Plainfield Public Schools Special Education Parent Advisory Group (PPS-SEPAG) will hold an open house for parents, providing an opportunity to network and learn more about how to become an advocate for their children.

Michelle Parello, Parent Advocate, is coordinating the event.

"We would love for our special needs families whose children are attending school both in district and out to stop in and chat," Parello said. "Our goal is to work together with families and grow our SEPAG organization. We encourage you to come out and learn more about The Plainfield SEPAG and join our team."
