Rashon K. Hasan, Ed. S. Superintendent of Schools

As Superintendent of the Plainfield Public School District, Mr. Rashon K. Hasan is passionate about public education and ensuring academic excellence for all students.

Mr. Hasan comes to Plainfield with more than a decade of managerial experience in education and business administration. Before coming to Plainfield in 2021, as the School Business Administrator, Rashon served as the School Business Administrator for Leonia Public School District in Leonia, New Jersey where he managed all financial and operational facets of the district.

Prior to working for Leonia Public Schools, Rashon served as Interim Assistant Business Administrator for Teaneck Public Schools. In addition to working as a School Business Administrator for both Plainfield Public Schools and Leonia Public Schools, and as an Interim Assistant Business Administrator, he has served as an Operations Manager for Verizon, Inc., Vice-President of the Newark Charter School Fund and Senior Associate for The Aspen Institute. He has successfully led diverse teams, managed multimillion-dollar budgets and grant portfolios, supervised various school construction projects and now leads the Plainfield Public School District as the Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Hasan is an alumnus of Clark-Atlanta University and holds an MBA from Florida Institute of Technology as well as an Education Specialist degree from Seton Hall University. He is an advocate for public education and students and is a former President of the Newark Board of Education in which he held the roles of Board Chairperson, Chairperson of the Finance Committee and supported and led many initiatives for the improvement of Newark Public Schools.

Mr. Hasan currently resides in Union County, NJ with his wife and three children.
